Afghan National Police salaries were paid in 2020.

Students (14 women) graduated from the UNDP-supported Master’s Programme in Gender and Women Studies, Kabul University.

The exportation of over 4,600 metric tons of agricultural products with a value of over USD 7.5 million was facilitated to regional markets.

Long-term employment opportunities for 1,050 women were created through the construction of the One Village One Product Sales Centre in Badakhshan.

A legal awareness campaign was conducted through 30 Radio Channels that reach over 1.12 million people in 19 provinces.

A total of 20 female students — all pursuing Technical and Vocational Education Training (TVET) — were dispatched to Kazakhstan and Uzbekistan, making the total number of students currently pursuing their studies there 50—all women. The other 30 students, based in Kazakhstan, include 10 women pursuing their MA in Mining and Statistics, 10 studying for their BA in Agronomy and Mining, and the remaining 10 female students are also working towards their TVET certification.

Through Fixed Centers and Rapid Response Teams, 32,194 samples were collected from suspected patient where 7,668 were tested positive. Through 36,729 risk communication sessions 988,161 people were informed about COVID-19 virus its preventive measures and related risks. Under home-based care initiative, 8,606 COVID-19 patients were visited, and care was provided.

A total of 181 corruption cases were resolved including the misuse of COVID-19 assistance packages, selling of expired medicines, road construction against Bill of Quantities (BoQ), doctors reporting late to clinics and land grabbing through CSOs’ interventions.

A total of 20 female students – all pursuing Technical and Vocational Education Training (TVET) – were dispatched to Kazakhstan and Uzbekistan, making the total number of students currently pursuing their studies there 50—all women. The other 30 students, based in Kazakhstan, include 10 women pursuing their MA in Mining and Statistics, 10 studying for their BA in Agronomy and Mining, and the remaining 10 female students are also working towards their TVET certification.

Long-term employment opportunities for 1,050 women were created through the construction of the One Village One Product Sales Centre in Badakhshan.

A total of 181 corruption cases were resolved including the misuse of COVID-19 assistance packages, selling of expired medicines, road construction against Bill of Quantities (BoQ), doctors reporting late to clinics and land grabbing through CSOs’ interventions.

22 commercial greenhouses and 40 micro greenhouses covering an area of 4.5 hectares of land were constructed to improve farm infrastructure and establish 553.2 hectares of new high-value crops orchards; 17 raisin houses, and built 29 irrigation projects protecting and irrigating over 4,600 hectares of land.

A legal awareness campaign was conducted through 30 Radio Channels that reach over 1.12 million people in 19 provinces.

The exportation of over 4,600 metric tons of agricultural products with a value of over USD 7.5 million was facilitated to regional markets.