Building Resilience of Refugee Hosting Communities 2016-2017

Over 24,000 people living in host communities now can meet their basic needs and send their children to school.

Their sources of income has improved through the set up of new livestock, poultry, fishary and grain mill cooperatives.

The government of Japan has provided US$1.4 million to support this UNDP initiative.