* For statistical purposes, the United Nations General Assembly defines youth as between the ages of 15-24, without prejudice to other definitions by Member States. However, since in many countries people below the age of 35 who are active in politics are considered young, this brochure uses a more flexible definition of youth – people between the ages of 21 and 35.

UNDP is the UN’s global development network, advocating for change and connecting countries to knowledge, experience and resources to help people build a better life. We are on the ground in nearly 170 countries, working with them on their own solutions to global and national development challenges. As they develop local capacity, they draw on the people of UNDP and our wide range of partners.

The UNDP Lebanese Elections Assistance Project (LEAP) aims to strengthen the capacity of stakeholders for the conduct of transparent and inclusive elections in Lebanon. UNDP LEAP provides electoral technical assistance and advisory support through a multi-component approach focused on the following areas: 1) Management & Administration of Elections, 2) Supervision of Elections, 3) Voter Education, 4) Resolution of Election Disputes, & 5) Women’s Participation in Elections. UNDP LEAP is funded by the European Union and the United States Agency for International Development.
