Where the company fails to reimburse such funds, UNDP reserves the right to seek recovery and/or to take any other action as it deems necessary.

16.2- The Contractor acknowledges and agrees that, at anytime, UNDP may conduct investigations relating to any aspect of the Contract, the obligations performed under the Contract, and the operations of the Contractor generally. 18.3 UNDP reserves the right to verify whether such a plan is in place, and to suggest modifications to the plan when necessary. Failure to maintain and implement an appropriate security plan as required hereunder shall be deemed a breach of this contract. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Contractor shall remain solely responsible for the security of its personnel and for UNDP’s property in its custody as set forth in paragraph 3.1 above.

Article 19 - Termination for Insolvency

1. Article 21 - Force Majeure

1. The Contractor shall not be liable for termination for default if, and to the extent that, its delay in performance or other failure to perform its obligations under the RLA is the result of the event of Force Majeure.

2. For the purposes of this Clause, “Force Majeure” means an event beyond the control of the Contractor and not involving the Contractor’s fault or negligence and not foreseeable. Such events may include, but are not restricted to, acts of the UNDP either in its sovereign or contractual capacity, wars, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions.

3. If a Force Majeure situation arises, the Contractor shall promptly notify the UNDP in writing of such condition and the cause thereof. In the event any taxing authority refuses to recognize the UNDP exemption from such taxes, the Contractor shall immediately consult with the UNDP to determine a mutually acceptable procedure.

Article 25 - Amendments

1. No modification of or change in this RLA, waiver of any of its provisions or additional contractual provisions shall be valid or enforceable unless previously approved in writing by the parties to this RLA or their duly authorized representatives in the form of an amendment to this RLA signed by the parties hereto.
