

Ahmad Al Hammal

Operations and Service Manger

UNDP's Programme of Assistance to the Palestinian People

Ahmad brings to this position over 15 years of professional experience in the field of programme and operations management. He joined PAPP from the UNDP Somalia Country Office where he has spent the last 5 years as Assistant Country Director and Head of the Partnership and Planning Unit.

Prior to this, Ahmad was a member of the UNDP/PAPP family, having held several functions from project and programme management to heading the Management Support Unit (MSU), before his departure to Somalia.

With a deep interest and dedication to gender equality and the role of women and men in transforming the development agenda, Ahmad is also committed to ensuring the wellbeing of staff, through both their professional and personal growth within the organization.

Ahmad obtained his MA in International Relations - Diplomacy and Foreign Policy from the University of Wales, and also holds a BA in Politics and International Relations.