

AYC & UNDP a renewed partnership to support youth engagement in development in the Arab region

The Youth Development Program extends the employment of its current delegates to another year within the UNDP regional and country offices to allow them to:

Solidify the new skills acquired in the first year of the program

Gain further experience in implementing youth development projects

The Program Phases

1st phase – Year 1
Focused on learning

Initiates the delegates into UNDP and working with youth-related projects.

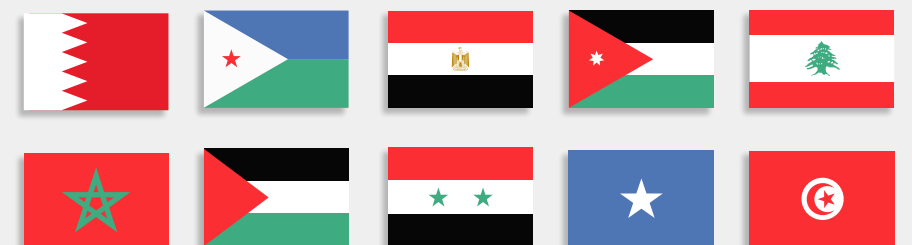

2nd phase - Year 2
Focused on taking actions

Provides an opportunity for the delegates to lead the implementation of youth initiatives.

The Program Cohorts

Current Cohort (2022/2020)

It includes youth from 10 Arab countries.

Next Cohort (2024-2022)

It will include youth from 3 additional Arab countries, in addition to the existing 10 countries .
