1. Background
1.1. Introduction:

UNDP is the UN's global development network, an organization advocating for change and connecting countries to knowledge, experience and resources to help build nations that can withstand crisis and support their efforts to implement the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and achieve the new Sustainable Development Goals. UNDP works in nearly 170 countries and territories, helping to achieve the eradication of poverty, and the reduction of inequalities and exclusion. We help countries to develop policies, leadership skills, partnering abilities, institutional capabilities and build resilience in order to sustain development results.

The UNDP Regional Bureau for Africa has identified partnerships and communications as a core strategic area of growth in support of its work in the Africa region. Focus on this area is motivated by the new demands posed by the 2030 and 2063 Agendas, which require of concerted actions from all development actors, in order to achieve their ambitious goals for socioeconomic transformation and sustainable development.
In Rwanda, UNDP is committed to contribute to the attainment of the above ambitious agendas and the objectives set out in the 2018-2023 Country Programme Document. In doing so, UNDP will support Rwanda to achieve the country’s new Vision 2050 and the new National Strategy for Transformation (NST 2017-2024). Building on the previous cycle, UNDP Rwanda will enhance those achievements and use the lessons learnt to strive and accomplish the objectives in this new cycle. With the continuous support from our partners, the Government of Rwanda, and the Rwandan people, UNDP will promote accountability, sustainability, environmental conservation, gender equality and ensuring the rights and inclusion of all citizens in democratic governance institutions.

To ensure stronger and effective communications of its work in the above areas, UNDP Rwanda intends to recruit an individual consultant to support in promoting, marketing and positioning this work at the continental and global levels, while at the same time providing strategic communications guidance and messaging to the communications team and the senior management team.
