

Annex 5: SF Results Matrix - Proposed Adjustment

25. The results matrix for the UNV Strategic Framework (SF), 2018-2021, sets out the results and measures that allow UNV and stakeholders to monitor achievements, learn lessons and hold the organization accountable.<sup>1</sup>

Outcome 2. The United Nations system is supported to deliver on the 2030 Agenda through the engagement of UN-Volunteers and integration of volunteerism.
Addendum	Outputs (UNV provides specific support for the following results)	Output indicators (output indicators measure only those results from schemes, services, plans, actions etc. which are specifically supported by UNV)		Baseline (2017, unless noted)	Target (2021)	Explanation
Previous	Output 2.1. Expand the opportunities for more people to contribute to United Nations development, peace and humanitarian efforts.	2.1.1	Number of months volunteered per year through UNV (online)	2,099 online (2016)	2,667 online	Discontinued due to technical limitation affecting data accuracy on online volunteering
		2.1.2	Number of people volunteered per year through UNV (online)	12,592 online (2016)	16,000 online
New		2.1.3	Number of online volunteering opportunities per year through UNV	2,775 (2017)  (2018 status: 2,503)	2,357  (2020 status: 2,067)	Reformulated indicator for accurately measuring online volunteering opportunities
		2.1.4	Number of online volunteers requested per year through UNV	7,991 (2017)  (2018 status: 5,909)	9,101  (2020 status: 7,764)	Reformulated indicator for measuring online volunteering demand

<sup>1</sup> In line with GA /RES/71/313 UNV will strive, where possible, to disaggregate its indicator data by sex, age, nationality and geographic location, modality (i.e. online and onsite), Sustainable Development Goal, actors, disability, or other characteristics.
